Nearby Resources:

Immediate help

- Dial 211: This is the most direct way to connect with local social service providers who can offer referrals to emergency housing, food, healthcare, and other aid. You can also visit the 211.org website.
- 911: In a life-threatening emergency, dial 911.
- 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline: If you or someone you know is struggling with thoughts of suicide, call or text 988 or chat at 988lifeline.org.

Long-term and state-specific resources

- Public Housing Agency (PHA): Contact your local PHA for assistance with moving from homelessness to more permanent housing options.
- HUD website: Find a list of local homeless assistance programs and shelters through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development \(HUD\) website.
- Local government services: Start with your county's Department of Human or Social Services, a local library, or a food pantry for referrals to various services.

National organizations

- National Coalition for the Homeless: Provides information on accessing affordable housing and other resources.
- National Alliance to End Homelessness: A non-partisan organization that advocates for evidence-based strategies to end homelessness.
- Volunteers of America: Offers emergency assistance, help with evictions, and transitional housing programs.
- Catholic Charities U.S.A.: Helps individuals and families at risk of homelessness.
